

Directions to Coffee Mountain Inn

SANTA FE, VERAGUAS

By Car:

From Panama City:

- Take the Interamerican Highway west to Santiago (2.5 -3 hrs).
- In Santiago, follow the sign for the turn off to Santa Fe. (1 -1.5 hrs). This is a short distance but with curvy roads and slow moving trucks. *Get gas in Santiago, there are no stations in Santa Fe.

In Santa Fe:

Unfortunately for the traveler, there are many small, connected streets within the town of Santa Fe – none marked. While there are many routes a traveler can take to arrive at the inn, this gives directions by landmarks.

1. You will be welcomed to Santa Fe with a large, white concrete sign “Bienvenidos a Santa Fe”. Continue straight into town.
2. After passing the church and open air market, make an immediate right on the next street.
3. After going for a block, you will come to an intersection, continue straight. (There is a slight curve).
4. Continue for approximately 500 meters. The inn will be on your left.

By Bus:

- Buses from Santiago depart to Santa Fe every ½ to hour from 5:00AM to 7:30 PM. but I never hinge my plans on catching the first or last bus- especially on Sunday. There is always the 5% of the time that the bus breaks down, or that the driver decided to go to his daughter's birthday party instead of doing his run.
- In Santa Fe, you may get off at the Park or at the Bus Station. If you get off at the station, walk South. On your left hand side, you will see a house on a corner with a stone wall. There should also be a sign to “Coffee Mountain”. Make a left at this house and continue down the street to the inn.
